

Fact sheets

Quick, simple explanations of our key work areas and tools

Data Exchange

04 May 2018

Description

We've been working with social sector organisations to develop a cloud-based Data Exchange platform that is easy for everyone to use.

Link/PDF

[Fact sheet - Data Exchange \[PDF, 505 KB\]](#)

Commissioning and Partnering

May 2018

Description

Social wellbeing commissioning is a set of inter-related steps that converts policy and investment into effective social services for New Zealanders.

Link/PDF

[Fact Sheet - Commissioning and Partnering \[PDF, 457 KB\]](#)

Place Based Initiatives (PBI)

Description

Three PBIs were established to bring local leaders together to address social issues and improve outcomes for children and young people and their family/whānau. They work in partnership with agencies and the SIA.

Link/PDF

[Fact Sheet - Place Based Initiatives \[PDF, 445 KB\]](#)

Social investment Analytical Layer (SIAL)

Description

The Social Investment Analytical Layer (SIAL) is events-structured tables that arrange a version of the data held in the IDI into a consistent format, making it easier and faster for authorised IDI users (researchers and analysts) to use and understand.

Link/PDF

[Fact Sheet - Social Investment Analytical Layer \[PDF, 362 KB\]](#)