

Innovative housing programme to support Dunedin youth

7 September 2017, News Categories

From early next year, the Methodist Mission Southern will be delivering an innovative youth transitional housing programme to help around 24 young people living in Dunedin each year, Social Housing Minister Amy Adams announced today

Read the full media release .

← Back to the news