

What's happening when?

Find out the key milestones in the process to refine the investing for social wellbeing approach, and the development of the data protection and use policy.

The findings will inform a Cabinet report back on the approach to investing for social wellbeing in early 2019 and Government will consider the approach following this.

A draft Data Protection and Use Policy will be presented to Cabinet in early 2019, followed by further engagement in the second quarter of 2019.
